♩ = 120

The first three measures of the piece are shown in a 4/4 time signature. Each measure contains a power chord. Measure 1 is an A5 power chord (root on the 5th string, 2nd fret). Measure 2 is a D5 power chord (root on the 4th string, 2nd fret). Measure 3 is an E5 power chord (root on the 6th string, 2nd fret). The notation includes a treble clef, a 4/4 time signature, and a tempo marking of 120 beats per minute. The guitar tablature below each measure shows the fretting for the power chords: A5 (5-2), D5 (4-2), and E5 (6-2).

The fourth and fifth measures of the piece are shown. Measure 4 is an A5 power chord (root on the 5th string, 2nd fret). Measure 5 is a D5 power chord (root on the 4th string, 2nd fret). The notation includes a treble clef, a 4/4 time signature, and a tempo marking of 120 beats per minute. The guitar tablature below each measure shows the fretting for the power chords: A5 (5-2) and D5 (4-2). A '4x' marking is placed above the second measure, indicating a four-measure repeat.
